Answer one of the following questions (all questions are of equal value)

1x20=20

Please restrict your answer between 1500 to 2000 words

Your answer should be well-researched and organized with proper citation.

1. Trace the root causes of the disintegration of the relationship between East Bengal and West Pakistan between August 1947 - March 1971 that culminated in the genocide by the army of Pakistan against the East Bengali people, leading to the Bangladesh Liberation War and the establishment of an independent Bengali nation-state on 16 December, 1971. Be sure to consider all social, cultural, religious, economic and political reasons and factors in your essay.
2. Compare Bangladesh's successes and challenges in economic and social sector development with the successes and challenges of your own country.

Plagiarism Warning

BRAC University requires students to act in an honest manner. Copying from another student or copying from published or unpublished or electronic sources without appropriate citations or quotations is plagiarism. Such dishonest practices will automatically result in students getting zero marks. Additionally, they will be reported to the university authorities for further disciplinary actions. You should also note that extensive quotation from the same source, even if properly acknowledged, does not demonstrate your understanding. Such work cannot receive a high grade.
